AN ex-sheriff of the "grand, old Yazoo county," Miss., is working for the Republicans in Ohio.

For the four weeks ending last Saturday, the excess of our imported gold and silver over the exports of the same, was $26,586,056, while the excess of our exports of other products over the imports was over $15,000,000.

HENDRICKS, in his recent speech in Ohio, said that "from 1865 to 1875, ten years after the close of the war, the expenses remained at the same figure." In 1865 the expenses were $1,217,704.
In 1875 they were $1,644,421.
1897 25; in 1870 they were $1,644,421.

If it had not been for the payment of $8,000,000 arrears of pensions in August the public debt would have been decreased $10,000,000. And, notwithstanding all this, there are some people with cheek enough to say the Republican party is dead.

As the day approaches, the excitement over the election in Ohio increases. For some time past it has been a foregone conclusion that Charles Foster would be the next "ruler of Ohio's counties." The principal Democrats have almost abandoned Ewing in order that the Legislature might be attended to. From present appearances, there is no doubt that the Republicans will have a majority in both Houses. The National vote which has been taken from this party, it is claimed, will nearly all return to it this year.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal, after it discovered that it could remain quiet no longer, spoke out about the Yellow Fever Bill, but said the scheme was all a joke. The Post and News, of the same city, dissents to this. It censures the C-J for Black-burn's nomination, and Blackburn for his silence about the charges, and says the only way to do is to speak the truth boldly, which it proceeds to do in the following manner:

"We suppose there is no doubt that the plan to use the pestilence to aid the South was conceived by Dr Blackburn, and that an attempt was made to put the plan in practical operation." But it was as wild, as absurd, as ridiculous a plan as ever came from the brain of a sane man."

Knoxville City Schools.

From a table of statistics, furnished us by the efficient Superintendent of our Public Schools, Prof. R. D. S.
Robertson, we gather the following interesting items in regard to the status of the Schools during the month of September, the first month of the fall session:

Number of pupils enrolled during September: In Bell House School, boys, 342; girls, 195; total, 537. Hampden Sidney, 321, all girls. Peabody, boys, 139; girls, 107; total, 245. Total white: boys, 490; girls, 623; total, 1,113.
Colored Schools, boys, 137; girls, 194; total, 331. Total enrollment in both white and colored: boys, 617; girls, 817; grand total for the month, 1,434. This 263 shows more students enrolled this year than in September, 1878, and although only one additional teacher is employed, the schools are getting along admirably.

The total per cent. of attendance is shown to be 96; white schools, 98, colored, 94. Total number of tardies, 185; whites, 95; colored, 90. Percent tardies, 37; white 24; colored 87. Total per cent. scholarship, 75; white 79, colored, 68. The total number of visitors was 486, distributed as follows: Bell House, 214; Hampden Sidney, 145; Peabody, 62; colored schools, 65.

JONESBORO CENTENNIAL.

A Grand Gala Day for our Ancient Neighboring Town.

A Grand Success Every Way—8,000 Persons Present.

Patriotic Address by Hon. D. M.
Key, Postmaster General.

He Deals Manfully with the State Credit Question.

Interesting Historical Address by Gen. H. M. Doak, of Nashville.

Remarks by Judge Sneed, Gov.
Marks and Hon. A. A. Taylor.

JONESBORO, Oct. 3, 1879.
Special to the Chron.

The Washington County Fair and Jonesboro Centennial celebration today was a grand success in every particular. There were fully eight thousand persons present, and it was the best dressed and best behaved crowd of its size we have ever seen in the State.
The number of articles on exhibition was unusually large, and the management of the fair could not be criticised unfavorably. The only drawback to the enjoyment of the occasion was the dense clouds of dust which enveloped all parts of the grounds.

At 1 o'clock Hon. D. M. Key, Postmaster General, addressed a very large audience. His remarks were addressed almost entirely to the State credit question. He took strong grounds in favor of sustaining the honor and credit of the State, and condemned the repudiationists in terms not to be misunderstood.
His remarks were applauded by nine-tenths of those present. His speech will be published in full to-morrow's Chronicle.

G. H. M. Doak, of the Nashville American, next addressed the audience. His address was replete with interesting historical facts, and highly creditable to the speaker.

Remarks were made by Judge Jno.
L. T. Sneed, of Memphis; Governor A.
S. Marks, of Nashville, and Hon. A.
A. Taylor, of Carter county.

The exhibition closed this evening.
Judge Key returns to Washington tonight.

YELLOW FEVER.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 3.—10 A. M.—Two new cases of yellow fever were reported this morning—Alex. Perry, a well known fisherman, and Louisa Costor.

The warm weather for the past three days has made the State Board of Health officials more vigilant in enforcing quarantine regulations.

The picket force which guards all the roads leading into Memphis has been strengthened to-day, and positive instructions have been given to permit no one to enter or leave the city without a special permit has been granted.

The cloudy weather of yesterday afternoon has given place to bright sunshine and the day promises to be the hottest of the season.

Noon.—One additional case is reported, A. M. Rodgers, a policeman, who is now convalescing. No deaths from yellow fever since last night.

THE INDIANS.

RAWLINS, W. T., October 2.— General Merritt, with three hundred and fifty cavalry, left here yesterday and will be followed by the infantry to-day.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—From the Indian Bureau it is ascertained that the following are among the names which led to the fight at Milk River, Colorado.

In June last an intrusion of the miners upon White river Utes' reservation caused ill feeling among the Indians, who wandered off from the reservation and committed a number of incendiary acts. On September 8th, Agent Meeker reported that the Indians insisted upon his disordering the ploughing of land which they wanted for a pasture. A plow-man was fired on, when the Agent called for a council which resulted in a reluctant consent to have the work proceed. On September 13th, Meeker telegraphed that he had been assailed by Chief Johnson and forced out of his house, and asked the Government for protection, which was ordered.
Major Thornburgh's command was bound to follow when attacked. It is feared Meeker and all on the reservation are massacred.

On Sept. 1st, Major Bryant, of the Fourth Infantry, with four companies, left here this afternoon for the relief of Major Thornburgh's command.
OAKHURST, Oct. 1.—It is believed here that Major Thornburgh, who is an experienced and cautious officer, fell into an ambush planned by the enemy. The military authorities are unanimous in the belief that the worst has now been told, for Lieut. Payne, strongly entrenched near the water, is well provisioned and will further furtively himself by throwing up earthworks, which with the wagon train, will enable him to hold his own till the reinforcements appear, which will be soon. General Williams has consulted with General Crook, who is in Chicago, and ordering matters forward. General Merritt, at Fort D. A. Russell, Cheyenne, was telegraphed to and ordered to take command of the expedition.

The message was carried by the operator who received it at the latter place to the General at his headquarters on horseback. General Merritt immediately began preparing for the expedition. At Camp Douglas and Salt Lake no time was lost, but everything was perfected at short notice. At Fort McPherson and Sanders the same activity prevailed. The Union Pacific railroad worked in harmony with the military and troops are now en route for Rawlins, from which point success will be sent out.

A special train of four cars of troops from Camp Douglas left Oakes at 2 p. m. to day for the scene of the outbreak. The train was under orders to make fast time. Three hundred men and six hundred horses left Cheyenne to-day for Rawlins. One company left Fort Sanders, and two companies of cavalry left Fort McPherson to day for Fort Steele. The latter had horses, baggage, etc., with them. The troops have been ordered forward from Fort Fetterman and Robinson, and will leave for the seat of war as soon as they can reach the railroad. General Merritt, to whom the command of the expedition is given, is one of the best Indian fighters in the country.

This forenoon the telegraphed General Williams that he would be ready to start to-morrow morning with a force of nearly 500 men. As animals and provisions are plenty, the march will be forced, and relief will soon reach those in peril. Major Thornburgh's body has not been recovered, but lies in front of his command and can not be recovered. He was a very powerful man, fully six feet, five inches in height, active and muscular, a good shot, and a daring horseman. He leaves a wife and two children who are at Fort Steele.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Trustees of the Peabody fund again assembled at Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday. A committee consisting of Hamilton Fish, Bishop Whipple, and Gen. Barnes was appointed, to whom was referred that portion of President Winthrop's opening address relative to the loss sustained to the Board of Trustees in the recent death of Gen. Richard Taylor, of Louisiana, who was one of its members, reported resolutions in honor of deceased. The resolutions were adopted and placed upon the records of the meeting. William M. Everts, H. H. Stuart, of Virginia, and Chief Justice Waite, who on Wednesday were appointed a committee to consider those portions of the President's address, and of the general agents report, that relate to the proposition to invoke the aid of the National Government for the education of the colored children in the Southern States, reported that they had not arrived at any definite understanding in regard to the subject, and asked leave to report fully at the next meeting. The selection of a successor to the late Gen. Taylor on the Board was also laid over until the next meeting. The Trustees spent some time discussing the condition of the Normal College at Nashville, Tenn. The standing committees were reappointed, with the exception that Gen. Henry R.
Jackson, of Savannah, was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Executive Committee occasioned by the death of Gen. Taylor. On motion of Mr. Everts the Board adjourning to meet at Washington in February, 1880.

Col. Geo. T. Watson, an officer on Jefferson Davis' staff throughout the late war, died in Jersey City yesterday. It is thought possible that his death was caused by an overdose of some drug prescribed for his relief.

The decision rendered to-day in the United States Circuit Court, by Chief Justice Waite, in the matter of the collision between the steamers Adriatic, of the White Star Line, and the British bark Harvest Queen, which occurred on the night of Jan.
1, 1875. The amount involved in the suit being a $220,000. The case came up on an appeal from the District Court, having been tried before Judge Blatchford. After reviewing the evidence taken before him at some length, the Chief Justice dismisses the bill for libel brought against the Adriatic, with costs in both courts, and bases his decision entirely on the ground that upon the case, as it stands, the steamer was free from blame.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 3.—At the fair grounds yesterday evening, after the President had finished his speech, Gen. Sherman was called for, and in the course of his remarks referring to the slaughter at Milk River, said: "We must punish these Indians and avenge the dead. It will be done, notwithstanding Congress has given us so few men because of the hard times, which are now passed." He spoke of the smallness of the army, and urged his listeners to use their influence with their Congressmen to have the army strengthened.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

ADRIAN, MICH., Oct. 3.—At the county fair yesterday about two thousand persons assembled on the grand stand to witness the races, when the centre of the stand gave way and the mass of people were precipitated into the river in the rear and upon the ground in front.
Six were killed and a large number more or less severely wounded.

LOUISVILLE, KY., October 3.— Colonel Clark, President of the Jockey Club, is slowly recovering from the wound received at the hands of L. G. Moore.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—Six hundred cabinet makers met this morning. Two firms sent communications announcing that they would pay the advance. A committee has been appointed to wait upon the non-striking workmen morning, noon and night until they joined the movement. The President of the Union has sent dispatches to New York, Chicago, St. Louis and Louisville warning laborers not to come here for work.

INDICATIONS: For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, cloudy or partly cloudy weather, variable winds, shifting to southerly or nearly southerly temperature and lower barometer.

Fatinitza by Adah Richmond.

As may be seen in our advertising columns, the beautiful and fascinating comic opera artist, Adah Richmond, supported by one of the best comic opera troupes extant, will play a three nights' engagement at Staub's Opera House, commencing next Monday night and a Wednesday evening matinee.
The opera to be produced Monday night is "Fatinitza," something entirely new, and immensely attractive, if we are to believe the critics of some of the leading papers. The following are excerpts from the Baltimore Gazette criticising the company and the opera:

A large and intelligent audience greeted Miss Adah Richmond and her company at the Holiday last night.
The first act was an agreeable surprise to the audience. It can not be denied that there was some skepticism at the outset as to the ability of the company to properly render the character of the opera. Before the first scene ended the audience was assured and all went well. Miss Richmond acquitted herself in the dual role of Vladimir and Fatinitza with great credit. She is a pleasing, graceful person, vicious and spirited enough in her acting and free from the suggestiveness which mars the performance of the majority of the star bouffe singers. There was no line the slightest approach to coarseness or vulgarity. Miss Richmond's voice, albeit something of a contralto, is rich and flexible and strong. It is under fine control. In the concerted song in the last act she sustained herself well and demonstrated her claims to be considered an accomplished lyric artist.

The scenes of the opera are laid along the Danube in midwinter and offered opportunity for handsome stage-setting. The feature was well attended to, and the entire movement of the pieces showed the skillful hand of Mr. James Vincent, one of the best stage managers in the country. Miss Richmond and Miss Gourd both received several recalls last night. The charming march, "March F reward Fearlessly," received a triple encore, fairly carrying the house by storm. On the whole the opera was well rendered, and Miss Richmond's company may be regarded as a success.

Russian Filial Devotion.

The Russian papers tell a singular story of filial devotion. A woman in Stavropol, 60 years old, had reprimanded her son, a full-grown man, and was excited to still greater anger against him by her daughter. At last she grew so infuriated that she raised her arm to strike her son; but he grasped his mother's arm and prevented the blow. For this action the old lady made complaint against him before a Judge, and he was ordered to appear in court. Whereupon filled with remorse at having tried to avert the wrathful blow of his mother, he seized an ax and chopped off his offending hand.

Holston Synod, Evangelical Lutheran Church.

MR. EDITOR: Holston Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church held its eighteenth annual session at New Haven Church, in Sullivan county, of which Rev. W. G. Wolford is pastor, Sept. 25-28. The writer traveled through a fine portion of East Tennessee in going to this meeting, and having made himself independent of the railroad had a good opportunity for observing the country.
Were the roads as pleasant as the scenery, and the farms as good as the dinner, especially when the "parson" is there, what a good country ours would be! Particularly striking was "Chimney Top Mountain," its sides dappled as sunshine and shadow, their successive visits make its garments of vernal beauty changed for the autumn robes of purple and gold, standing like a giant sentinel between the rival mountains of the Alleghenies and Cumberland.

On Thursday morning the session was opened, Rev. Mr. Schmidt presiding. The Synodical Sermon. Election of officers resulted as follows: President, Rev. J. G. Schmidt; Secretary, Rev. G. H. Cox; Treasurer, Mr. W. H.
Burnett; Superintendent of Missions, Rev. A. J. Brown, D. D. The necessary routine work, appointment of committees, etc., occupied the afternoon.

The main business attended to by the Synod on the following days was the provision for the missionary work and Moshim Institute. If carried out, the provisions are ample and satisfactory, and will be an honor to the Church. In regard to the Institute a splendid beginning has been made, not to mention the vigorous and enthusiastic debate.

The entire meeting was characterized by a very good spirit. Divine services were held twice every day, in which the laymen very freely participated, the congregation on Sunday being estimated at 800 persons, 200 of whom partook of the Lord's Supper.
Certainly a good showing for a country congregation.

Bethel Evangelical Lutheran Church, Knox county, was chosen as the place of the next meet. It is to be regretted that there was no doctrinal discussion beyond a very short impromptu talk on Saturday afternoon; but for the next convention this matter is provided for. J. C. M.

Taken to the Insane Asylum.

Sheriff Blevins, of Hawkins county, passed down the road on yesterday's train bound for Nashville, having in charge and taking to the Asylum for the Insane, John Gray, a young man living near Surgoinsville, who has been hopelessly insane for over ten months. He was attending school, and is a remarkably good student, and it is thought overtaxed his brain. It is a sad case.

The Huntley Dramatic Company.

Mr. H. E. Wheeler, agent of the Huntley Dramatic Company, is in the city, and was to see us yesterday.
He is perfecting arrangements for the appearance here Wednesday, the 15th inst. of this excellent company for a short engagement. Their first piece here is the new and attractive society drama, "Peril," or on the Beach at Long Branch. The Huntley's are favorably remembered by Knoxville play-goers. The company is newly organized, and they have all new people and some splendid actors. They may expect a hearty welcome in Knoxville.

Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court re-assembled yesterday morning, and the following business was entered of record:

Lucy Blang vs. P. L. Blang; motion to rehear.

Jones & Batey vs. Lassiter; death of Jones suggested and admitted; cause abated as to Jones and revived in name of Batey, surviving partner, etc.

A. C. Blevins vs. W. H. Howard; death of Howard suggested and admitted.

John Boone vs. Wm. J. Dowell; death of Wm. Dowell suggested and admitted; revived against Cynthia Dowell.

Chas. Cates vs. J. S. Blankenship; affirmed.

E. T. V. & G. R. R. Co. vs. Mary Jane Smith; compromise.

W. B. Porter vs. E. T. V. & G. R.
R. Co.; affirmed.

David Bridges vs. Staudifer & Reagan; affirmed.

E. T. V. & G. R. R. Co. in error, vs.
Wm. H. Pickett; affirmed.

The docket of McMinn county occupied the attention of the court yesterday, and was almost completed. It will be taken up again Monday, today being opinion day.

Court adjourned till 9 o'clock this morning.

Wendell Phillips Declines.

BOSTON, September 29.—Wendell Phillips has written a letter to Hon.
Beane, a member of the greenback committee, peremptorily declining to remain upon the ticket as a nominee for Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts. Mr. Phillips thinks he can serve the greenback movement more efficiently by remaining outside of the party lines.
